

PRESS RELEASE – CAZENOVE CAPITAL MANAGEMENT HIRE SENIOR ECONOMIST AND STRATEGIST

Richard Jeffrey is to join Cazenove Capital Management in a new role of Chief Economist and Strategist, an appointment which reflects the evolution and growth of Cazenove Capital Management in recent years. Andrew Ross, Chief Executive, comments:-

'This is tremendous news for Cazenove Capital. Richard is well respected in the industry and we are delighted that we have been able to attract an individual of his quality and experience. We know each other well because Richard has been a non executive director of our hedge funds for many years. Our wider client base will now be able to benefit from his expertise.'

Richard Jeffrey has over 25 years of experience, having fulfilled senior roles as an economist and strategist at Hoare Govett (now ABN Amro), Charterhouse Securities, Bridgewell and most recently Ingenious Media, where he helped to establish a research-based securities business as part of the Ingenious group. He is a frequent broadcaster on radio and television and has written for various newspapers and magazines, including a weekly column in The Business.

Richard Jeffrey added 'I am excited by a move 'across the fence' into asset management. Cazenove Capital have expanded and enhanced their business impressively in recent years and I am looking forward to contributing to its continued success.'
