Cazenove Capital confirms the appointment of Marcus Gregson as non-executive Director to the Board of Cazenove Capital Holdings.

Mr Gregson was, until his retirement, the founding chief executive of HSBC Private Bank (UK) Ltd having joined Samuel Montagu (ultimately HSBC Private Bank) in 1989. Prior to joining there he was Managing Director, Private Banking at Royal Trust Bank (1988-89). He started his career at Biddle & Co, qualifying as a lawyer in 1970 and then joining Vickers, da Costa stockbrokers (1970-75). In 1976 Mr Gregson moved to Manufactures Hanover, US Bank (1976-1987) returning to the UK as head of financial institutions in 1986.

Mr Gregson is a non-executive director of various companies, including Sand Aire Ltd (Deputy Chairman) and Greenstone Carbon Management Ltd (Chairman).

Andrew Ross, Chief Executive of Cazenove Capital commented, "Marcus will be a very welcome addition to the Board of Cazenove Capital, bringing with him considerable experience and expertise. He will help the Board assess its strategy as it looks to grow Cazenove Capital, particularly with regard to its well respected wealth management business."
